

Changes to broadcast ownership rules which were put in place by Congress to ensure that the public would have access to a wide range of news, information, and programming, as well as diverse political views would likely open the door to numerous mergers that could reduce competition and diversity in the media. This would not be to the advantage of the public and would benefit the few at the expense of most.